

Are you looking for a better life and know that education is the key to getting there? We want you to know you are not alone.

The Chatfield Edge offers free support to individuals who want to pursue higher education to help them move beyond their current life limitations and create a brighter future for themselves and their families.

Whether education occurs in a college or university setting, a trade school environment, or a certification program, the unique support and encouragement we provide is what gives focused individuals The Chatfield Edge.

For more than 50 years, the Ursuline Sisters operated Chatfield College in Brown County and their legacy in education spans 177 years. Their mission continues in The Chatfield Edge which combines education attainment support, financial assistance, mentoring, and spiritual guidance to empower individuals to achieve their life goals.

FOUR WAYS YOU CAN GET SUPPORT

EDUCATION ENDEAVORS

The world of higher education can be difficult to navigate.

The Chatfield Edge will help you:

- Identify your strengths and interests
- Determine what type of education best suits you
- Select a school or program
- Identify what documents are needed for applications
- Secure financial aid

CHATFIELD SCHOLARS

Finances are often a challenge for those who want to pursue education.

We can help you by providing financial support if there is still a gap after other financial aid options have been explored.

FUTURE NOW

Long-term support leads to success.

We are here to help while you are in school by offering individual coaching and mentoring to keep you on track with your goals.

SERVANT LEADERS

Taking time to reflect and serve others empowers students to live their values.

The Chatfield Edge welcomes people of all faiths and offers opportunities for community service and retreats.

Taking the next step

If you're ready to start on an educational journey that can transform your life, we are ready to walk the path with you. Contact us today to set up an appointment with one of our team members.